HONORABLE PAUL A. CROTTY, United States District Judge:

ORDER

14 Civ. 8105 (PAC)

Seventeen Plaintiffs, who were delivery drivers for Defendant Eli's Bread, sued Defendants for unpaid overtime wages under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") and the New York Labor Law ("NYLL"). (ECF 1, 5–10, 29–33, 36, 48). Each Plaintiff has now entered into an independent settlement agreement with Defendants, and all parties jointly request approval of the settlements. (See ECF 123).

On February 14, 2018, the Court heard oral presentation in support of their requests. Upon due consideration of the parties' oral argument and Mr. Bauer's submission dated December 14, 2017, the Court determines that each of the seventeen settlements is fair and reasonable; as is the allowance for attorney's fees. (See Cheeks v. Freeport Pancake House, 796 F.3d 199, 203 (2d Cir. 2015)). The settlement is approved. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the settlement for the purpose of the enforcement of the payment schedule in each settlement agreement.

The action is resolved without costs to either party.

Dated: New York, New York
February 15, 2018

SO ORDERED

PAUL A. CROTTY
United States District Judge
